From Waverley station: Taxi: There is a taxi rank inside the station, and another on Waverley Bridge outside the station. If you go out onto Waverley Bridge you might meet other DebConf attendees coming off the airport bus. Ask the taxi driver to take you to Bristo Square. Walking: See map, Teviot is about 1.2 km away.

From Edinburgh airport: If you arrive in a group we suggest taking a taxi directly to the venue, otherwise the cheapest option would be to start by taking the bus into the city. If you forgot UK money, there are cash machines in the terminal building.

- Taxi (£15-20, easy): Follow the taxi signs in the terminal. The taxi rank is along a covered path outside the terminal building. The staff at the rank will assign you to a taxi dependent on your destination and the number of passengers -- if you are in a big group, try asking for a larger vehicle. Ask the taxi-driver to take you to Bristo Square, then walk across the pedestrian square to reach Teviot.

- Airlink express shuttle bus (£5 return): Follow the bus signs in the terminal. The express bus leaves every 10 minutes from outside UK arrivals. Buy a return ticket and keep the second half for when you leave. Take the bus to its terminus at Waverley Bridge, then take a taxi from the taxi stand on the other side of the road, or walk to Teviot (about 1.2 km). From 00.47 to 04.13 the service is replaced by the N22 night bus (every 30 minutes), ask the driver for help finding the right stop to get off at.

- Local bus (£1): Follow the bus signs in the terminal, then look for the number 35 bus towards Ocean Terminal. A single ticket costs £1. You need the exact money: if arriving from outside the UK you could buy something in the airport to get coins. Take the bus to Forrest Road (40 minutes to 1 hour dependent on time of day). Ask the driver or other passengers for help finding the right stop. The first service of the day leaves the airport at 06.04 and the last usable service leaves at 23.02. From Forrest Road it is about a 200 metre walk to Teviot.

From Glasgow airport: Take a bus to Buchanan Street bus station in Glasgow, then change to a bus to Edinburgh. Alternatively take a taxi to Glasgow Queen Street station (or a 905 bus to West George Street outside the station), and take a train from there to Edinburgh Waverley.

From Glasgow Prestwick airport: Glasgow Prestwick has its own railway station, so during the day the best option is to take a train to Glasgow Central station then change to a train for Edinburgh. There is also a bus service between Glasgow Prestwick and Edinburgh.
